About Ready for Work

We are an EmployAbility Service. We support people with health issues or disabilities to gain and sustain employment.

As a participant you will:

- Be supported by a Job Coach for up to 18 months
- Gain access to work experience and job opportunities
- Have our support when starting work and as you progress in your job

Who is it for?

People over 18 who are affected by a disability or health challenge and have started their journey back to work

Living within the greater Dublin area

You don't need to be on a particular type of social welfare payment to participate
